

2021 McHENRY HOHNEN
GRENACHE SHIRAZ MATARO

Review Summary

92 pts – “Sweet edge, strawberry perfume, roses, spicy peppery heat in the throat. A bit of smoke and sous-bois, lots of grippy textural things floating around. There’s milk chocolate grip in the throat, blood orange and pomegrante twist on top. Feels a bit rugged but overall very good.”

89 pts – “Good depth of colour; shy but heady aromas, some alcohol and oak showing. There's a welter of tannin that imparts astringency in the grip as well as some oaky notes. A solid citizen but needs time and/or hearty food.”
