

2022 McHENRY HOHNEN
MARSANNE / ROUSSANNE

Review Summary

93 pts – “If you think this is going to be oily, weighty and rich, well you’d be wrong. It certainly has plenty of flavour, a nice combo of white stone fruit, lemon salts and fresh citrus, too, with a layer of frangipane. There’s a snip of phenolics adding to its shape but this feels light on its feet thanks to its acidity.”

92 pts – “Bright lemon yellow in a glass that has a fragrant lift of white peach and honeysuckle aromas. A ripe and generous core of citrus and stone fruits drive the palate with a fine line of salty mineral acidity and hints of smoked spices underneath. Good length and crisp at the finish.”
